CASE AGAINST DR. DIMON WILL BE FINISHED TODAY.

Rebuttal Will Be Followed by Arguments and Charge to Jury—Burns Case Next.

When the criminal superior court opens this morning there will be rebuttal testimony introduced in the case of the state vs. Dr. Dimon, which is not expected to occupy over an hour. The arguments by the four attorneys will then be made, after which Judge Wheeler will charge the jury and they will retire for consideration of the case.

This case is to be followed by the case of the state vs. Adelle Burns of New London. It is expected that this case will be started Wednesday morning.

The Burns woman, who is charged with statutory rape in procuring a girl 15 years old and using her for immoral purposes at 45 Bradley street, New London, is out on $7,000 bail. The girl, who makes the charge against Adelle Burns is May Burns of New Haven, who is 17 years old, the alleged offense against her having been committed five years ago. Witnesses have been summoned for Wednesday morning.

Tomlinson Still at Large.

George Tomlinson of Groton is still at large and has failed to answer to the charge of assault against his superior court. Neither his attorney nor members of his family have the least knowledge of his whereabouts. In view of the view of asking the leniency of the court in the matter, Tomlinson had friends to look them up, skipping out; the petition is being prepared for the purpose of trying to relieve his mother of the burden assumed by her when she went his bonds.

WEDDING.

Stewart-Pendleton.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Pendleton in North Stonington, on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when their daughter, Lucy Adeline Pendleton, was united in marriage with Clifford Henry Stewart of Stonington. The couple was attended by Miss Leah C. Stewart of Stonington, and Charles L. Stewart of Norwich, a cousin of the groom.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. George B. Spaulding, Jr., pastor of the First Baptist church of Stonington. The house was prettily decorated with evergreens and ferns.

Previous to the ceremony, Miss Odette P. Adams of Norwich sang "On Promise Me." Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Professor Robinson of New London. The bride wore a gown of white silk chiffon and carried a bouquet of white roses and white carnations. Only the immediate relatives of both families and a few close friends were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart will spend their honeymoon at New York city. They are both popular young people and have the best wishes of a host of friends for a happy future.

Lost Father and Two Sisters.

Paul Robert of New London, who testified in the superior court here last week, has been located in relation to the Italian earthquake disaster, and learned Monday morning that his father and two sisters had been killed. One sister survived the earthquake and is well. Mr. Robert learned the news from his brother, in New York, who has been in New York city for the past two weeks to find out about his family.

Mr. Robert's father and three sisters lived in Messina. The father was in the employ of the municipal government as an inspector of weights and measures.

In Probate Court.

BOARD OF THE ARTS MEETING

President Frederic W. Cary and Other Officers Unanimously Re-elected—Efforts will be Made to Get Hard-ware Concern Here—Reports of Officials and Statistic Committee.

There was a large gathering of the members of the board of trade on Monday evening at the Buckingham hotel for the annual meeting of the board of the art and handicrafts association.

The meeting proved a very enthusiastic one in every particular. The officers were re-elected, the reports accepted and the executive committee was authorized to offer the Knickerbocker Manufacturing Co. of New Jersey the expense of moving the plant to Norwich, not to exceed $300, and pay $50 a month as a portion of the rent for a period of two years, and so the plan of the company will locate here.

The board also listened to a highly instructive and entertaining presentation by Professor Guillever on "The Development of Norwich, as told elsewhere. The meeting lasted until 10:40 o'clock and was followed by lunch.
